Join us for our final session in our Quarterly Caregiver Connection series! This month we will be discussing social media and technology as it relates to the children in our lives. What effects are social media apps proving to have on the minds of our children? Where can we find space and time for meaningful discussions with children and youth about social media? How can we set appropriate and consistent boundaries in these areas? We will also have some group interaction and dialogue surrounding this topic. Join us! Coffee, tea, hot chocolate are available in the cafe, and light refreshments will be provided in the MPR. This is a great opportunity for a productive date night!
