

November School Closing Questions

General

Why are we doing this?

- As you know, at the start of this school year with the promise that we would place priority to the overall health and safety of our families, and we are committed to keeping that promise.

When will we return?

- We will resume in-person classes on Monday, November 30.

Lunch

Will students still have lunch?

- Students will be given lunch breaks during their regular lunch time.

Learning

How will students learn?

- Students will log onto Zoom and watch live classes, or they will have the opportunity to watch them after they are posted in Schoology.

Are the schedules the same?

- The student will have the same schedule as if they were in person learning. This means that grades 6-12 will be switching classes. Our elementary grades will follow the schedule each teacher sent out via email. All subjects will be taught.

Will there be helps/virtual helps after school?

- Yes. As scheduled.

What platform will virtual students use? Will they have a username/password?

- We will use Zoom for videos and Schoology for submitting lessons.

Will the virtual classes be recorded and when are assignments due?

- Work is due when stated on Schoology. There will be no grace for late assignments, unless communicated with each teacher.

Athletics

- All athletic practices and games are postponed until we return on 11/30/2020.

Elementary

Please refer to the class email sent by each elementary grade level teacher for all expectations and schedules.

Middle and High School

How will students complete their work?

- Students have eBooks and their activity manuals have been sent home. Once they complete their assignments, they will upload them through Schoology.

What is the schedule that students will follow?

- 1st Period - 8:30 - 9:20
- 2nd Period - 9:24 - 10:14
- 3rd Period - 10:18 - 11:08
