Learning from Jesus and The Bible Daily

Learning is part of life. It is what helps to make life exciting and fun. It is part of your growth process. You should have a desire to learn, and you should be willing to share what you have learned to help and benefit other people. Learning helps to satisfy the soul, body and spirit.

That said, understand that there is no greater teacher than the Lord Jesus. He has things to teach you that you cannot learn from anyone else. He has things to teach you that are more important than the things you will learn from anyone else. So, I encourage you to learn from Jesus each and every day. How? By studying the life and the teachings of Jesus preserved for us in the four gospel accounts (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John). In these gospels you will not only learn from Jesus, but you will also learn about who He was. You will see how He lived. How He loved. How He shared with other people. In these gospels God allows us to see the life of Christ. The life that was lived in total obedience to the Father, and was sacrificed so that you and I could have eternal life. In these gospels, you will also be introduced to the men that really knew Him. You will learn about the choices that they made pertaining to Jesus, and the sacrifices that they made to be His disciples (a disciple is a student or learner of). In these gospels you will come to understand what it means to be a true disciple, and the benefits that you will reap from being a disciple.

Here is one of the things that Jesus said about discipleship: "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." (John 8:31-32)

Here is another thing that Jesus said about being a disciple: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it." (Matthew 16:24-25)

I have written another section titled, "Living to Please God." You are called to live to please God, no doubt, and learning from Jesus will enable you to do so. By embracing the teachings of Jesus, and studying the Bible daily, you will be equipped with the knowledge and understanding needed to live a life pleasing to God. Not only that, but remember as a Christian you have the Holy Spirit of God within you. With the Words of God and the Spirit of God you have the ability to live for God, and to please Him.

With Love, In Christ,
Brother Ian Drucker – Minister of the Gospel
