It's Mine

Here are a few rules that toddlers tend to have regarding "their stuff". Let's look.

1. If I like it, it's mine.
2. If it's in my hand, it's mine.
3. If I can take it from you, it's mine.
4. If I had it a little while ago, it's mine.
5. If it's mine, it must never appear to be yours in any way.
6. If I'm doing or building something, all the pieces are mine.
7. If it looks just like mine, it's mine.
8. If I saw it first, it's mine.
9. If you are playing with something and you put it down, it automatically becomes mine.
10. If it's broken, it's yours.

We think this is funny and maybe a little true. Often time we don't realize, that's how we sometimes act. We may be adults but sometimes it's just as easy to fall into the mine mentality.

Whether it be the things we own, groups we are in charge of, or even our own lives. "It's my life I'll do what I want." Does this sound familiar?

Listen to this excerpt from Parents Magazine by Linda Bernstein: "While toddlers believe that everything is "mine," 3- and 4-year-olds usually understand that only certain things belong to them. Increasingly independent, they're developing a stronger sense of self—and tend to see their favorite items as extensions of themselves. As a result, they're naturally overprotective of belongings." Sometimes we don't realize that if we switched out "toddlers" with "I, Me, and My" we can see where we are still struggling with toddler "Mine Complex".

We must remember that ALL THINGS are God's. "Our things", us, and this Earth are all given to us to be good stewards of.

1 Corinthians 10:26 – for, "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it."

Share every blessing God has given you. To know that I am God's mean's I know He wants the best for me and that He love me and you.
