Bienvenue!

I am writing to you from Baie St. Paul, Quebec (photo below). We have been doing outreach here since 2008, and continue to pray that a church will be started here in the next few years. (We need an artsy young couple with great faith who speak French to move here for 2-3 years!) The first contacts here were made with a young Quebecois couple who attended a marriage seminar I gave up in Chicoutimi. They were on their second honeymoon and were staying at the same hotel where we held the seminar. They just 'happened' to see the sign for the seminar and wander in! Since then we have made many contacts and have encouraged a number of couples to come visit and do informal outreach. It is a wonderful place to work and get to know people!

Tomorrow we drive north to Chicoutimi, where we did one of our first campaigns in Quebec. We also did campaigns in Quebec City, Ste. Foy, and Sherbrooke. Friday we meet people from Saguenay area and members of the congregation in Ste. Ambroise. I will be speaking about the grace of God and the holy life of a Christian (in French). Sunday I will be preaching for the Ste. Ambroise church. Our excellent co-worker Jean Grenier has organized another encouraging weekend for churches from all over Quebec Province. Please pray for new contacts and the strengthening of isolated brothers and sisters here! Thank you! God bless you! A très bientôt!

In His Awesome Love,
Bren & Cheryl
