

MERRIMACK VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH

Greetings!

We have the privilege of having Tyler Masters preach God's Word to us this Sunday. It has been a pleasure having the Masters Family with us for our Missions Conference this week.

Too often we preach grace but practice law. What brings us into the kingdom of God is also what sustains us. The gospel is not only a means of salvation but rather a way of life for the born-again Christian. In pursuit of the Great Commission we must be careful to NOT seek our sense of value or satisfaction in results that we manipulate or manufacture. We need to rest in the fact that we are accepted by the Father in Jesus Christ, sustained by His Spirit, and given significance as His children. With that as our motivation to serve, we will see God producing the fruit He desires, and He will consequently receive the honor and glory He alone deserves. This is the message of Christ that challenged the hearts of self-justifying legalists in His lifetime and remains a relevant truth for us to consider today.

Join us for one of our two Sunday morning in-person services at 8:45 a.m. or 10:30 a.m. Our Children's Church is at 10:30 a.m. On Wednesdays, join us for our in-person Wednesday Bible Study at 6:45 p.m. in the Chapel. Pastor Greg will be leading us through the parables. Seating is limited for each of these in-person services, so be sure to sign up at www.mvbc.org/sign-up today! The 10:30 a.m. Sunday service, Children's Ministries videos, Adult Bible Study on Wednesdays, and Teen Life, will still be available online for those worshiping from home as well.

Missions Conference is in full swing this week. Join us tonight for Friday's Family Drive-In double-feature at the Chestnut parking lot at 6:45 p.m. On Sunday, November 15, Tyler Masters will be preaching from God's Word and update us on his new ministry, Member Care Ministry. We will also be emphasizing our Faith Promise Pledge for our missionaries and mission projects. A schedule is listed for you on our website. Please remember to sign up to attend each in-person service. Click here for more details and to sign up.
