

A Walk Through Mark

The author of the Gospel of Mark gave his book a working title in the first verse, saying “The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.” What follows is an action packed, eye-witness account of the words and deeds of Jesus which launched the global spread of the good news of God’s rescue mission for all people. The fast moving 16 chapters of Mark are easy to read, take a total of 75 minutes for an average adult reader, and are both a great introduction (for rookies) and a great reminder (for veteran followers) of the central figure of Christianity, Jesus Christ.

Each weekday over the course of the next four weeks, set aside 15 minutes to read the daily chapter or passage and then reflect upon what the Holy Spirit highlights for you.

To connect with the passage, try these six simple steps:

1. Find a quiet spot to read, mute your phone and set it down outside of your reach.
2. Take a deep breath in, hold it, and then release it. Ask God to talk to you through the passage you are reading.
3. Read the passage. Underline words or verses that get your attention, seem important, or repeat often.
4. When you are done, look back on the items you underlined and think through why they may have been important to you. How do they apply to your life today?
5. (Optional) Answer the questions for this passage from our daily text message or from the website: mvfcolorado.com/next-steps/Go-Mark
6. Pray again, thanking God for what He showed you in the passage. Pray for the Spirit to help bring these items into focus during the rest of your day.

Check off the passage. Repeat the next day!
