Grapple Question:

How Come I'm Not Perfect?

Kids Learn:

Self-Acceptance and God's Unconditional Love

Dig Into the Bible:

Genesis 1:26-27, 31; Psalm 139:13-16; Romans 8:35-39

Now is a great time to drag out those ridiculous junior high pictures you vowed would never again see the light of day. Encourage your son or daughter by sharing a laugh over your huge glasses or that Space Age mullet. Your preteen may not look like a movie star, but that's okay. Continually remind your child that you're crazy about him or her—and so is God.
