Grapple Question:

What if My Parent Asks Me to Do Something Wrong?

Kids Learn:

God's Law Is Above Man's Law

Dig Into the Bible:

Daniel 3:8-30; Acts 5:25-29; Philippians 4:13

You have an awesome responsibility as a parent! God has entrusted to you the moral upbringing of your children. Your kids watch and hear everything you do and say, and they learn more from you than you probably realize. For example, when you ask them to tell a "little white lie," they learn that lying is no big deal. Be careful with your choices—large and small—as your children are always learning from you.
