Motives: God Looks at the Heart

Dig Into the Bible:

1 Chronicles 29:17; Proverbs 16:2; 20:27; Jeremiah 17:10; Philippians 1:12-18

This week, tell your child about a time you did something with pure motives, but the results of your actions were disastrous. Have a good laugh together, and share other stories of times you or your child meant well but couldn't quite pull off the desired results. Explain that it really is the thought that counts in such situations and that God looks at the motives and intentions of our hearts.
