What Was God Thinking?

God has a plan for everything, including our relationships. Perhaps you've seen God's hand in your own relationships, like your marriage, friendships, or interactions with relatives.

It's not too early to start praying for your preteen's future spouse. Ask God to keep your preteen's future spouse pure and safe and to help him or her make good choices in life. Also pray the same for your preteen. Even though marriage may be far off, God will honor your commitment in praying for your preteen.
