

Today I learned...

Today your child learned that God's special plans for us give us reason to celebrate. Children discovered that Esther became queen because that was God's plan. They learned that God has special plans for them, too!

God has special plans for us, so let's celebrate!

Verse to Learn

"The Lord will work out his plans for my life" (Psalm 138:8a).

Ask Me...

- What special plan did God have for Esther?
- How does it feel to know that God has special plans for you?
- How can our family celebrate God's goodness?

Family Fun

- This week, honor each other by allowing a different family member to be "King for the Day" or "Queen for the Day." Let the King or Queen wear a paper crown at mealtimes, sit on a special "throne," and lead the family in prayer.
- Declare your own holiday this week to celebrate God's special plans for us. Proclaim a day of feasting and playing. As you celebrate, talk about God's special plans for your family.
