

ENCOUNTER – MOCKERY

Dec 2/20

Acts 2:1–13 is the account of the outpouring of the Spirit – as I mentioned on Sunday I believe that this event took place mostly or all at the Southern steps of the Temple as people poured in for Pentecost.

In the midst of this momentous moment, there are the inevitable people who view spiritual reality with mockery – they were quick to ridicule. This is what we see today in our culture – in spades! People feel free to mock what they do not understand. The question today is – knowing that any spiritual discussion may well produce scoffing and belittling, what do we do with making our faith known? See you tomorrow...
