• Utilizing Zelle instead of Text-to-give, Credit Card or PayPal eliminates these fees!

What is Zelle?

• Zelle is a payment application like PayPal, Venmo or Cash App

• Unlike other payment applications owned by 3rd parties which may charge fees, Zelle is jointly owned by major Banks and never charges fees

• Most major Bank and Credit unions already have Zelle built into their mobile banking application, making it easy to use!
• As long as your financial institution is a Zelle member, then you may use your regular online banking application to donate.

• Below is a partial listing of San Diego financial institutions that already have Zelle built into their online banking application:
