Moment

From the Pastor

Grant Stegall

"Is not the festive season when families and friends exchange gifts in memory of The Gift laid on the altar of the world for the redemption of the human race, the most appropriate time to consecrate a portion from abounding riches and scant poverty to send forth the good tidings of great joy into all the earth?" These were words penned by Lottie Moon in September, 1887. As Southern Baptists, we collect a special mission offering in December each year, named in memory of this faithful servant.

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering is a mission offering in which 100% of the money given goes directly to missionaries on the field. Our church's goal this year is $15,000. There are several ways that you can give:

- Online at desotohills.com.
- Anytime using a Lottie Moon envelope at the Welcome Desk.
- On December 21, at our special part of the service called "March to the Manger."

As we strive to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus, this is one way we can make a difference. I'll close today with one more Lottie Moon quote:

"How many there are ... who imagine that because Jesus paid it all, they need to pay nothing, forgetting that the prime object of their salvation was that they should follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ in bringing back a lost world to God."
