Fellowship Presbyterian Church

Ring in the Season

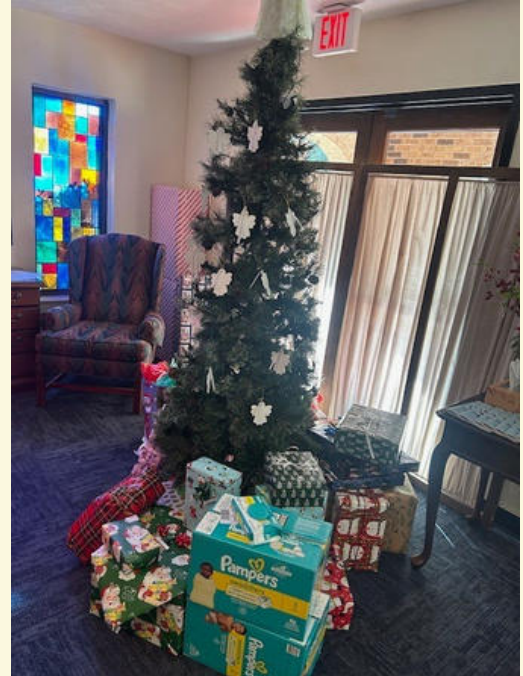

Last weekend our handbell choir joined with others in the community for the annual Ring in the Season at First Baptist. On Sunday they shared beautiful Christmas music with the congregation during the service.

"Every day new shoots - new glimmers of hope - shoot forth from dead stumps," Rev. Mealor said. "Be faithful. Love your neighbor. Share the good news with the poor and the oppressed. Hope is what we do."

Thank you to our Music Director Phillip Ashley for sharing his talent and leadership with us, and to all of those in the handbell choir who have helped made our holiday season bright.

ANGEL TREE UPDATE

This Sunday is the LAST Sunday to bring in Angel Tree items and donations. Thank you so much for all you have given. The families will have a wonderful Christmas. We will be happy to shop so that all requests can be met.

Want to explore Advent more?

This year we will not have a Wednesday Advent Study. If you want to explore the theme more we invite you to join the Philos & Koinonia merged class meeting in the conference room. All you need is the Advent devotional and read the Scriptures for the week. If you're looking for a book study, it's not too late to join the Seekers class. They are reading Calling All Angels: An Advent Study of Fearlessness and Strength by Erin Wathen.

END OF YEAR GIVING

We have had an amazing year at Fellowship serving our neighbors, building community, and developing disciples. As we close out 2025 and step into 2026 we pray that you would continue to invest in the work we are doing together.
