Welcome Our Staff Members

Kim Bergstresser, Office and Finance Manager

Kim is a mother of three who recently re-entered the workforce after spending several years at home raising her children. In 2020, her family relocated from Deland, FL to Tallahassee. Kim values family connections and often spends quality time with her loved ones, including visits to relatives in Central Florida. Kim is actively involved in her community, dedicating her time as a volunteer at her daughter's school and community members at Grace Mission.

Julia Chaves, Staff Singer

Julia is from Orlando, Florida, and is currently a senior Choral Music Education student at Florida State University. She began singing at a young age and has been involved in vocal ensembles ever since. She aspires to be an elementary music teacher or a middle school choir director, with a passion for inspiring young musicians to develop a lifelong love for music. She is grateful to be singing with the Fellowship choir and praise band!

CAJM Affordable Housing Update

On Tuesday the Leon County Commission voted unanimously to approve the first loan for a project funded under the County's Affordable Housing Gap Financing and Incentive Program. This vote represents the culmination of more than three years of CAJM advocacy to establish a local funding program that promotes development of rental housing that households with very-low and extremely-low incomes can afford. Volunteers of America, Florida has applied for a $187,500 loan for Via Nova, an 86-unit rental housing project that will serve residents exiting homelessness. They have committed to maintaining the affordability of the housing "in perpetuity."

Several Commissioners spoke before the vote congratulating CAJM for its faithful advocacy, willingness to listen and to collaborate. Commissioner Maddox asked his fellow Commissioners to give the nearly 50 CAJM members in attendance a standing ovation. This step is not an abstract policy issue. It's about families, children, seniors – our neighbors – who deserve stability and dignity. The Commission's vote will truly change lives, and CAJM is committed to continuing this work alongside our local leaders.
