

Search Committee Member Nomination Form The Episcopal Diocese of Texas

This form is for the nomination of an active member of your church to be considered for appointment to the Search Committee for a new rector.

Before completing this form, read the description of the ideal Search Committee member and the Vision Document of your church. Then based on the description and the vision, mission and values defined in your church's Vision Document, prayerfully reflect on who in your congregation might be best suited to be considered.

It is important to nominate persons who can faithfully represent your congregation, who are respected for their individual ministry, and who are committed to your church.

Be sure to gain their permission before submitting this nomination.
