ENCOURAGEMENT FROM THE PASTOR

Ephesians 3:20-21

We are living through uncertain and stressful times, therefore it is good to know we belong to such an awesome God! Remember, we can place all of our circumstances and concerns, indeed our very lives, in the care of the One who controls and knows the beginning, middle, and future. What is even more amazing is that this power of our great God is working within us to accomplish things even greater than our entire being can conceive. So give praise, honor, glory, and total worship to God this day and all the days to follow.

Let our prayer be, "Awesome and gracious God, thank You for sharing the best of who You are so that we can embrace and live out the best of who You created and called us to be, while doing the work You have assigned for Your glory. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Faith in action: Make sure to express the best of yourself through God-arranged encounters of hope, love, and giving! Feed, uplift, and encourage by acknowledging the humanity in all of our sisters and brothers.
