The funds that the children give in the jar after communion have been going to Compassion International to support a Rwandan boy named Nshimiyimana. The church has been sponsoring him for many years, since he was a young child. He is now 17-years-old and he will age out of the program once he graduates high school. We recently received a couple letters from him and I wanted to share those letters with you all.

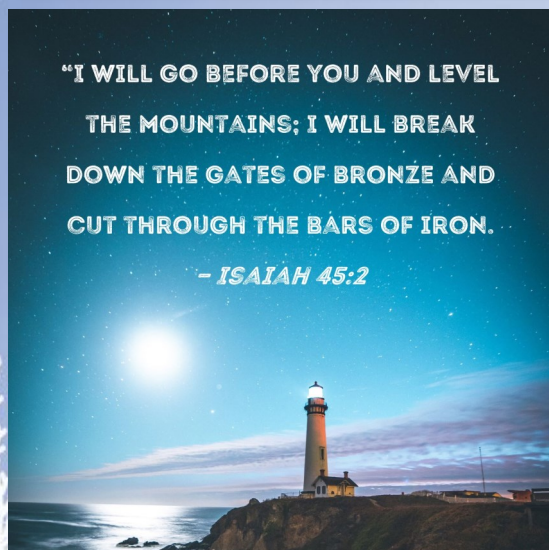

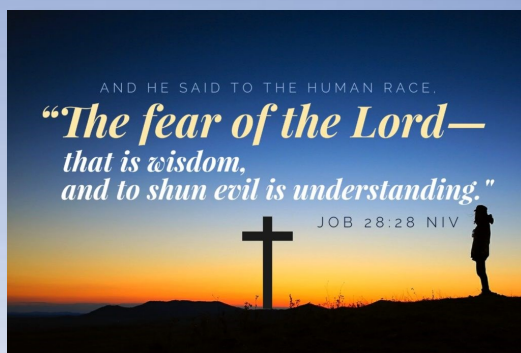

I would like to thank you for the gift you sent to me. With the money, we were able to buy a goat. We thank you for your sacrifice and the love that you continue to show me. May God bless you. I love you very much and pray for good health for you. Job 28:28. May peace from God be with you.

Dear Southeast Family, I greet you. How are you doing? I and my family are fine and we are thankful to God. I am pleased to have this opportunity to write to you. I hope that you are fine. May God protect you all the time. I am now preparing to sit for exams and I request you to pray for me so that I may perform well. I love you very much and I give thanks to God for giving me such nice sponsors. May God bless you. We are now busy weeding beans, maize, and cassava. Please pray for us so that we may have a good harvest. I have grown big and I am a young man now and God also takes joy in me. I pray God's blessings on you. I would like to share with you Isaiah 45:2. I thank you very much and I pray that God may protect you and give you peace.

Dear Southeast Family, I greet you first in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. How are you doing? My family and I are fine and we give thanks to God. The cow delivered a calf and we can now drink milk at home.

We are very happy and my mother can now take care of me. I give thanks to God. I am preparing to get the results of the exams and I will then know where I will be admitted. We are in the rainy season and we are planting beans, maize, sweet potatoes, and others...Please pray for us so that we may have a good harvest. I love you and I would like to see you face to face and give thanks to God for giving me such a nice sponsor like you. I would like to meet you face to face. I pray for good health for you.
