WHO I AM
Leadership Identity
30-Minute Teaching Flow Card

Audience

Anyone who influences another person is a leader. Leadership begins with leading yourself before leading others.

Welcome & Introduction (3 min)

Theme: Identity is the foundation of every God-honoring leader. Scriptures: Genesis 1:27; Ephesians 2:10. Opening Question: Who are you when every title is taken away?

Identity Determines Leadership (5 min)

Genesis 1:26-27. Point: You cannot consistently lead beyond the identity you believe about yourself. Discussion: What shapes your identity? How does it affect your leadership? Action: Write one truth God says about you.

Identity Comes From the Creator (5 min)

Psalm 139:13-16; Isaiah 43:7. Point: The Creator defines His creation. Discussion: What voices compete with God's voice? Whose opinion has shaped you? Action: Replace one competing voice with Scripture.

Challenges Reveal Identity (5 min)

Genesis 3; Romans 12:2. Point: Leadership challenges often reveal identity challenges. Discussion: What challenge are you facing? What truth addresses it? Action: Replace one lie with one biblical truth.

Christ Restores Identity (5 min)

2 Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 1:3-7. Point: You lead from acceptance, not for acceptance. Discussion: Where are you striving? Action: Write one declaration about who you are in Christ.

Identity Clarifies Assignment (4 min)

Ephesians 2:10; 1 Peter 4:10. Point: Purpose is shared. Assignment is personal. Faithfulness is required. Discussion: What assignment has God given you? Action: Take one intentional step this week.

Closing (3 min)

Framework: Identity → Purpose → Assignment → Impact. Reflection: I am... God created me to... God has entrusted me to... This week I will... Matthew 5:16. Declaration: I know who I am because I know whose I am.
