

PART 2: Proximity    DATE: 07-15-2018

START

Have you ever met someone that later you wish you'd never met? Is there a person you wish your husband, wife, son, or daughter had never met? Sometimes people are our greatest regrets because they influence us to ignore our guardrails and step into the danger zone.

- Who is someone in your life that has stood by you in good times and bad?
- Talk about a time when you saw someone suffer because of his or her relationships. What happened?

READ

Proverbs 13:20

Walk with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm.

THINK

Judgmental is when I draw a harsh conclusion about you. Good judgement is when I draw conclusions about myself based on wisdom.

- To what extent has not wanting to be judgemental drawn you into unhealthy relationships in the past?
- How do the new definitions of judgmental and good judgement change your perspective?

Joel said, "Friends that don't take care of themselves won't take care of your-self?"

- In what area of your life do you need to establish a standard?
- Do you have a relationship that could benefit from guardrails?
- What can you do to begin to establish guardrails?
- How can this group support you?

PRAY

Ask God to give you wisdom in the relationships in your life that are in need of guardrails, and the wisdom to help you take the first step in establishing those guardrails.

ACT

This week, write down some personal guardrails that are needed in your various relationships with others and pray over your list that God will guide you in establishing those guardrails.
