Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship ..... Psalm 100:1-5

* Hymn 65 (Red) ..... "Before Jehovah's Awesome Throne"

Before Jehovah's awesome throne, all nations, bow with sacred joy; know that the Lord is God alone, he can create, and he destroy—he can create, and he destroy.

His sovereign pow'r without our aid, made us of dust and formed us men; and when like wand'ring sheep we strayed, he brought us to his fold again—he brought us to his fold again.

We are his people, we his care, our souls and all our mortal frame: what lasting honors shall we rear, almighty Maker, to your name?—almighty Maker, to your name?

We'll crowd your gates with thankful songs, high as the heav'ns our voices raise; and earth, with her ten thousand tongues, shall fill your courts with sounding praise—shall fill your courts with sounding praise.

Wide as the world is your command, vast as eternity your love; firm as a rock your truth must stand, when rolling years shall cease to move—when rolling years shall cease to move.

* Invocation

Old Testament Reading ..... Joel 2:23-27

New Testament Reading ..... Titus 3:1-11

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

* Hymn 32 (Black) ..... "These Great Things"

How can it be this truth divine declared by God above? That all things by His grand design work good for us by love. What shall we say to these great things of mystery sublime? That if He is for us we can sing, now and for all time.

Called by our Lord in purposed ends no tragedy shall win; no curse for those He calls His friends; He saved us from our sins. What shall we say to these great things of mystery sublime? That if He is for us we can sing, now and for all time.

Foreknown by Him with hearts made new, to His Son we conform. No pow'r on earth can this undo for those He's made reborn. What shall we say to these great things of mystery sublime? That if He is for us we can sing, now and for all time.

First He did choose and called He then to surely justify; for those of the faith beyond our ken He soon will glorify. What shall we say to these great things of mystery sublime? That if He is for us we can sing, now and for all time.

Sermon ..... Rev. Alan H. Johnson

2 Kings 8:1-15

* Hymn 713 (Red) ..... "Great King of Nations, Hear Our Prayer"

Great King of nations, hear our prayer, while at your feet we fall, and humbly, with united cry, to you for mercy call.

The guilt is ours, but grace is yours, O turn us not away; but hear us from your lofty throne, and help us when we pray.

Our fathers' sins were manifold, and ours no less we own, yet wondrously from age to age your goodness has been shown.

When dangers, like a stormy sea, beset our country round, to you we looked, to you we cried, and help in you was found.

With one consent we meekly bow beneath your chast'ning hand, and, pouring forth confession meet, mourn with our mourning land.

With pitying eye behold our need, as thus we lift our prayer; correct us with your judgments, Lord, then let your mercy spare.

* Benediction

Old Peachtree Presbyterian Church exists to glorify God and to extend the kingdom of Jesus Christ. To accomplish this end, Old Peachtree aims to be a church that is continually growing in vital worship, in theological depth, in true fellowship, in assertive evangelism, and in deeds of compassion. The distinctiveness of Old Peachtree is in its desire to be Presbyterian in government and Reformed in theology, with the vitality that comes from evangelism and discipleship.
