Call to Worship Romans 8:12-15

* Hymn 324 (Black)..... “God, Our Father, We Adore Thee”

* Invocation

* Confession of Faith..... The Apostles’ Creed (Red Hymnal p. 846)

* Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Giving of Tithes and Offerings

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Old Peachtree Presbyterian Church exists to glorify God and to extend the kingdom of Jesus Christ. To accomplish this end, Old Peachtree aims to be a church that is continually growing in vital worship, in theological depth, in true fellowship, in assertive evangelism, and in deeds of compassion. The distinctiveness of Old Peachtree is in its desire to be Presbyterian in government and Reformed in theology, with the vitality that comes from evangelism and discipleship.

Worship provided by musicians from Independent Presbyterian Church.

The gift of God is inside each one of us. Scripture says, the Spirit dwells inside of us (2 Timothy 1:14) and yearns within us (James 4:5). In the case of Timothy from the Bible, this means a calling to the ministry, among other things (2 Timothy 1:3-7).

Let's explore that!

Discerning God's calling involves rejecting a spirit of fear and embracing the spirit of power, love and self-control to which he has called us (2 Timothy 1:7). The Spirit of Jesus enables us to do that and then calls each one of us to fan into flame "the gift of God" (2 Timothy 1:6).

Sometimes, even a pastor's sense of calling dwindles down to embers, which is why we must all work out not only our salvation but our various callings with fear and trembling and also joyful exuberance because God is good and we are not our own (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Besides all these things, as some of us tell our stories and share God's story for us from his Word, we will also have opportunity to hear from students and leaders who attended this year's Cross Conference, as we focus on missions too and taking God's message to the ends of the earth.
