CALL TO WORSHIP

This is the day our God has made!
Let us rejoice and be glad in it!
For we are God's people, the work of the Creator's hands!
We gather to feast on the goodness of God.
To dine at his table, to share in his grace, to celebrate his love.
Let us celebrate the goodness of God and the fellowship of faith that binds us together!

THE INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

MEDITATION

THE HISTORY LESSON:

Acts 2:42-47

ANTHEM: "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

arr. Mark Hayes

Come, thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above; praise his name—I'm fixed upon it—name of God's redeeming love! Hither to thy love hast blessed me; thou hast brought me to this place; and I know thy hand will bring me safely home by thy good grace. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from danger, bought me with his precious blood. O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be! Let thy goodness like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee: prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love; here's my heart, O take and seal it; seal it for thy courts above. Amen.

PROCLAMATION

THE GOSPEL LESSON:

Matthew 28:16-20

SERMON: "For Such a Time as This . . . and Whatever Happens Next"

Dr. Wright

SOLO: "Always the Same"

Ron Hamilton/arr. Shelly Hamilton

Always the same, Oh, praise his name, Jesus never changes; he's always the same. Always together, his love is forever; Jesus never changes; he's always the same. I am his, he is mine; Jesus knows my name. I can rest in his arms; he's always the same. When I fall, when I call, Jesus takes my hand. Cleansing me, lifting me, he helps me to stand. In his love I'm secure; we shall never part. In his Word I will trust and give him all my heart. In the dark of the night, when my heart would fear, lovingly, tenderly, my Savior is near.

THE CELEBRATION OF COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND THE CUP

You are invited to have bread or crackers and something to drink as we celebrate communion together. The minister will invite you to take bread and eat it as Christ's body broken for you. The minister will invite you to drink as Christ's blood shed for you."

INSTRUMENTAL MEDITATION: Blessed Assurance

Michael Stephenson, soprano saxophone; Amy Shortt, piano

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Lakeside Baptist Church confesses Jesus Christ as Lord, on the basis of who he was and is, and what he did and does. Who is he? We confess him to be God's unique son, the Messiah of Israel, the Lord of Life. What did he do? He gave his life even unto death – by God's will and for our sake – on the cross. He comes again and again by the Holy Spirit to communicate himself to his people. His people are the Church.

We seek simply to be one visible congregation of Christ's church. We hold particular views about the Christian faith; however, we also rejoice in our Lord's gracious gifts to our fellow believers who may see God in other ways. Happily, we count them as our brothers and our sisters.

We live out our faith by taking seriously our commitment to each other and to the world. We share not only our words, but our money, our time, and our talents, with our friends here, and with all God's people everywhere. Amen.
