

Reflections by the Lake
Devotions for an Unordinary Time

June 3, 2020
For the Beauty of the Earth
Amy Shortt

I have enjoyed reading your responses and stories of favorite hymns and songs. This project, "Hymn for Today, Hope for Tomorrow," has brought me comfort and joy, reminding me of why the hymns are so valuable to our faith development. These songs are stamped on our hearts and minds, available at a moments notice when we need them most. I hope this project will bring you comfort and joy too.

Click on the link below to learn more about "For the Beauty of the Earth" and feel free to sing along.

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/16agSGQGJAaY4IuWP31eyvGWelM-duJ9U/view>

I look forward to sharing more songs and hymns with you. My prayer is that these segments will deepen your love of hymns and hymn singing and that you will lean on the music of your faith to give "strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow."

Until we meet again, just keep singing!

Amy