COMMUNITY FALL FESTIVAL

On Sunday, October 23, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m., we will welcome friends from across our community for our Fall Festival! We encourage everyone from the Lakeside Family to come out for this fun afternoon of fellowship as we host families from the Lakeside Preschool, Backpack Buddies partner families, and friends from our neighborhood. We'll have a pony ride, a fire truck, a bouncy house for the little ones, and lots of games and prizes; along with cider, candy, and other treats for everyone! Come as you are, or come in costume, and be sure to invite a friend to join us!

We are still in need of volunteers to help set up on Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:00 p.m. and a few adults to help host a game or craft booth. If you can help, please contact Elizabeth as soon as possible.

LAKESIDE INVOLVED

Many thanks to all of you who have visited the Giving Tree this month and are finding ways to reach out to our community. There is still much to be done and many opportunities for service! We will meet at Lakeside on Saturday, November 5, to complete Lakeside Involved activities together. Groups will meet at 10:00 a.m. to pack blessing bags for migrant workers, put together Thanksgiving blessing mix treats for Meals on Wheels clients, finish making no-sew fleece lap blankets for residents at Hunter Hill Senior Living, and deliver soup to fellow members. Others will meet at Lakeside at 2:00 p.m. to travel to Joel and Jean Boseman's farm to host a "Come Together" gathering for farm workers. We will serve chili and then enjoy cookies and cocoa together. Rebecca Watkins will share her Red Bandana paintings with the migrant community who inspired her work.

After worship on Sunday, November 6, join us for sub sandwiches in Robbins Hall as we celebrate our 19th year of Lakeside Involved. Rebecca will talk to us about her paintings and Maria El Faysal, an advocate for local farm workers, will lead us in a discussion about the challenges and insecurities faced by the migrant community. Boxed lunches will be $5 each; please call the church office or sign up online no later than Thursday, November 3.

We offer our sympathy to Carrie and Buck Roney and their family in the death of her brother, Carl Batten of Wilson, on October 19.

Dear Lakeside Friends,

Thank you so much for the calls, texts, cards, and gifts of food you sent during my recent hip surgery. Each one brightened my day and motivated me toward complete recovery. I'll start driving next week and hope to see and thank you in person real soon!

Fondly, Jo Webb

IS FOOD A PROBLEM? OA CAN HELP.

Lakeside will host a local group of Overeaters Anonymous beginning October 20, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parlor of the Education Building.

Overeaters Anonymous is not a diet club. There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins. OA views compulsive eating as a physical, emotional, and spiritual disease that can be arrested but not cured. Members seek recovery on all three levels by following a Twelve Step program patterned after that of Alcoholics Anonymous. To find out more, go to oa.org or call Katie M at 508-641-3092.

LAKESIDE LADIES' BOOK CLUB

The Lakeside Ladies' Book Club will meet on Tuesday, November 1, at 5:00 p.m. in the church parlor for a discussion of the book, Horse, by Geraldine Brooks. Please join us.

INTRODUCING SOUL SPACE:

a group for exploring meditation, prayer, and other spiritual practices

Every Other Thursday at Noon

The first meeting will be on Thursday, November 10, on the Labyrinth.

YOUTH NEWS

I hope to see all of you here for our Community Fall Festival this Sunday from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. We have lots of fun activities planned and are looking forward to welcoming friends from Lakeside Preschool, our Backpack Buddies ministry, and others in our neighborhood. Be sure to come in costume (nothing too scary) and invite a friend!

We will have a regular schedule of activities on October 30 and will join our friends at First Presbyterian for a combined youth group activity on November 6. I look forward to seeing everyone on Sunday! Elizabeth

MUSIC NOTES

PARENTS: The Children's choir will be singing in worship on Sunday, November 13. Please make plans to be in attendance that morning and have your child in the sanctuary no later than 10:30 a.m. In the weeks prior, during our normal Sunday meeting times, we will be fitting robes for all of the children.

This Sunday will be Logan Mitscherlich's last opportunity to sing with us as a choral scholar. Logan has accepted a new job in little Washington, and we wish him the best as he begins this new endeavor. Jake

CALLING ALL TOPNOTCHERS: LET'S DO LUNCH!!!

Please join us for "Fun, Food and Fellowship" on Thursday, October 27, at noon at the Skinner's home (604 Chad Street). The luncheon will be catered by David Whitley of The Colonial Inn in Farmville. Everyone is invited . . . even if you have never participated before. Chuck Taylor will speak briefly about our new Strategic Plan. Please call the church office to sign up!
