Mathew 6:33

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Howdy FCC Kerrville Church Family!

I hope this newsletter article finds you safe and warm! As I write this, there are sheets of ice from the recent storm melting and falling off the roof of the church. I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of you for your patience and flexibility during the inclement weather this past weekend. A great many of you joined us online for worship via Facebook live on Sunday, and while it doesn't compare to joining together face to face for worship, I am thankful that we were able to come together while the weather kept us apart. The graceful flexibility and steadfast commitment of this congregation are part of what makes FCC Kerrville such a special place. Well done church!

As we press onward to the weeks and months ahead there is plenty on the horizon to look forward to, as there always is this time of year at FCC. The season of Lent is just a couple weeks away and as always I look forward to journeying toward the cross with you as we seek to increase in faithfulness and grow in obedience to Christ over these forty days. The season of Lent is punctuated with special opportunities for worship and begins with one such meaningful service on Ash Wednesday, (February 18th), at 6:00 p.m. On that night we will begin our Lenten journey by having the sign of the cross marked on our foreheads in ashes. The ashes symbolize our mortality, and our sin which are to be at the forefront of our minds in the weeks ahead. Throughout Lent we will wrestle with what it means to be finite and sinful humans who belong to a Savior who conquered sin and death. I would highly encourage all of you who are able, to begin the season of Lent with us on Ash Wednesday. For those who cannot make it to the 6:00 service we will also offer ashes in the porte-cocheres of the church on Ash Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. so anyone can stop by to receive the imposition of ashes and a Lenten blessing. Last year during Lent we began a new practice where each day I sent out a brief devotional via email. These daily devotionals were either written by me or one of the Elders of FCC, they began on Ash Wednesday and ended on Easter Sunday. We are offering this Lenten devotional again this year and I would like to invite you to sign up if you would like to receive these emails. For the next two Sundays, February 1st and February 8th, there will be a signup sheet going into the sanctuary where you can jot down your email address if you would like to be on our list.

In addition to these opportunities to grow your faith, February will also bring another opportunity for churchwide fellowship. On February 20th we will have our third annual all church banquet put together by Katherin McCoy and a host of faithful volunteers. As in years past I have no doubt that it will be a fun night of music and fellowship with a delicious meal. Make sure you get your tickets and make plans to attend because this banquet is always a great time!

In the coming month we have many opportunities ahead for worship, faithful growth, service, and in true FCC fashion, plenty of food! While all these things look very different and take on various forms, all of them make up our life together as a group of believers seeking God's kingdom together. In worship, in the season of Lent, in our own individual practices of faith, and around tables of food and fellowship we will seek Christ together in the weeks ahead. I look forward to seeking the kingdom of God above all else with you all!

Peace in His service

~Josh

Boutique

Changes are taking place with the Boutique, as you may have noticed.

The previous location is still available for larger items, now including knitted woolen scarfs and sweaters plus wheelchair/walker accessories. The second location, in the front church hallway (across from the name tags) has household and gift items of many kinds.

We have an additional, FREE TO YOU, table of craft items. This table will have a variety of fabric, zippers, yarn, ribbons, buttons, etc. The contents will change frequently - so please continue to check it out!

The Christian Women's Fellowship continues to contribute time and talents to the church's outreach program through the proceeds of sales from the Boutique.
