IN GOD'S WORD

Marvin Wyatt knew he needed to act soon – not only for the sake of his middle-school daughter's education, but for her safety. "It was time," Marvin said. "I had to find a better and safer environment for Maci."

It got to a point, where Marvin didn't feel safe dropping Maci off at the public school, where she attended through seventh grade. "She was afraid, I was afraid," Marvin said. A conversation with a co-worker eventually led to Maci's enrollment at Trinity Lutheran School.

"I wish I would have done this sooner," said Marvin, who is a divorced co-parent. "Being a single parent never makes it easy, but it was important for me to have her attend Trinity." It's important to Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool as well.

Thanks to your faithful and generous hearts, Trinity has the opportunity to provide funds to families in need through our Annual Fund campaign. This year has been quite the blessing. More than $31,000 of our $36,000 goal has been funded – praise God from whom all blessings flow!

By the way – there's still time to make a donation, if you are so led to do so. Donations can be made in the school office and these sacrificial gifts are life-changing. "Coming to Trinity has been eye-opening – it's night and day from the public school," Marvin said.

"Trinity sat down with us, cared for us and opened your arms to us. It's just been fantastic. It's all about value, and Trinity provides an extreme value. At the end of the day, this happened for a reason, and we are so thankful it did."

LENTEN DEVOTIONS

This weekend the Ushers will hand out Lenten devotion booklets as you leave the Sanctuary. Each devotion focuses on a human aspect of our Savior, the Word made flesh—Jesus, and the God-man who died for our sins. Pilate's command to the crowd at Jesus' crucifixion speaks an incredible truth—Jesus was indeed man. More specifically, He was God and man, an eternal being inhabiting a human body. This Lenten season, behold the man—the man who suffered, died, and rose again. The man who lived a perfect life and defeated death. The man whose death led to your life.
