FAITHFUL SERVANTS

Kay Berry and Janet Bremer will be missed – there's no doubt it.

The two long-standing pillars of Trinity Lutheran School are retiring.

"What troopers they are," Pastor Golter exclaimed.

"Their dedication to the Lord and His kids is unquestioned. I have only deep appreciation for their work in His kingdom here at Trinity."

Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Bremer have combined for more than 70 years of teaching – almost all in Lutheran schools.

While their teaching tenures include many memories and stories, the final three months of this past school year threw Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Bremer for a loop.

"I never experienced anything like it," said Mrs. Bremer, who also has served as Trinity's librarian and the director of faculty plays. "When Kay and I found out that we had to do online curriculum because of the pandemic, we knew it was time to retire."

Both Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Bremer said the love for the kids is what they will miss most.

"I will miss the kids and the families and being able to minister to them and be a part of their lives," said Mrs. Bremer. "It was the best thing I could ever do in my life."

In addition to Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Bremer, Trinity also would like to thank Elaine Ferris, Robyn Gray, Cassie Puls, Shannon Kueter, Jenny Grassle and Jen Cabbage for their service and passion for Christ-centered learning. Please remember to keep these wonderful servants in your prayers during their transition and as they embark on a new journey.

GENEROSITY

Matt. 10:42 – “And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.” The tithes and offerings you give to the Lord's work in His church go to supporting all manner of discipleship. The Lord is pleased with this work, and He wants to bless you through supporting it.
