TRINITY

MODULAR UPDATE

Monday's aren't always considered the best day of the week. But for Trinity's third-grade students and teachers, this past Monday may have been the best day of the school year. After getting final clearance, the classes, which began the year using the art room and school library as their classrooms, moved into the modular – a.k.a the cottages. While the classes get settled into their new environment, there's work left to do on the modular, including replacing the siding, finishing the skirting and adding a new entry floor.

WEEKEND OF WORK AND PLAY

But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. And you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves.

– Malachi 4:2

Leap with joy! Frolic! Gambol! Run or jump around playfully!

What a great description of our actions and emotions when we are in the presence of Jesus, knowing that our sins are forgiven.

So what is the translation of Malachi 4:2?

The Bible Commentary, The Minor Prophets says: In the light of this Sun, they shall go forth to their daily tasks in this world of sin and temptation and trials; and they shall "grow up," leap with joy, gambol, frolic "as calves of the stall." ... They are carefully fed in the "stalls," special feeding compartments where they receive the best food. They have the Word of God, the Sacraments, their Bible, their devotional books, the communion with their fellow men, so that they can go forth joyfully in exuberant vitality and strength. (Page 545).

On Oct. 13-14, God's people at Trinity Lutheran have the opportunity to be spiritually fed and embrace and enjoy being in the presence of Jesus through:

1. Work – a Kids Against Hunger food packaging drive on Oct. 13, beginning at 9 a.m. in the gym. You can sign up to help in the school office are at the Welcome Center.
2. Play – an Oktoberfest celebration that includes a congregational potluck on Oct. 14 from noon to 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.
