Everyone has a Stewardship Story

Well-known financial advisor, Suze Orman, often has people write their financial story. Suze says that when people take the time to put their relationship with money into words, they often get in touch with their values that help them make financial priorities. The same might be said of our relationship with money and how we prioritize it when it comes to giving.

When I was in high school, the father of one of my classmates spoke to our youth group about his stewardship. He talked about why he gave and how he gave. The next time I babysat, I gave a similar percentage of my babysitting earnings to CTK. Though I was a teenager, I found joy and meaning in contributing meaningfully to the faith community I was a part of. The giving habits I started at that time have continued to be an important part of how I participate in the life of the church.

So, how would you describe your stewardship story? Who taught you how to give? When have you found joy or meaning in your giving? I believe everyone has a stewardship story – the story that informs how they give and what gives it meaning. Giving can take shape in many forms – the giving of time, talent, finances & material goods. All are necessary and important as we seek to "know Christ & make Christ known".

I'm proud of our stewardship story as a congregation. We make a difference through the giving we do in a variety of ways – through word and sacrament ministry; through financial and material support of refugees; to feeding hungry people and providing relief those in need of shelter. Our story reflects God's story of faithfulness and love.

It's time to complete the hallway member photoboard and get contact information update for the church staff. Throughout the month of June we will have stations set up before and after each church service to do this. If you are available to help take pictures and collect updated info, please contact the office or email andreap@ctkmankato.org.

From the Faith Continuum Coordinator

Greetings Christ's Ambassadors all,

We have completed our second year of Faith Continuum. All who have spoken to me expressed continued interest in this ongoing Ministry of CtK. We look forward to honoring that interest!

We started the year with Lynn Mullin of LSS and Kathy Chatelaine of our SE MN Synod presenting on refugees and immigrants. That may have assisted Congregants to leap into action and lead a new CtK Ministry sponsoring Ukrainian refugees and Nicaraguan immigrants. That theme continued with a visit from LIRS Pastor Shafer in April. We finished the year by circling back with MSU-Mankato's Kristin Odland sharing opportunities that we have with the international student community at Minnesota State University. If you wish more information on how you can welcome students who are new to our shores share about this "shining city on the hill", please contact Kristin Odland at kristin.odland@mnsu.edu.

In between we looked at ELCA social statements and messages including mental health, physical health and disabilities. Pastor John reminded us that Advent is all about Jesus and Garrett shared on Advent/Christmas Religious Traditions.

We learned from the experts on Luther and our Lutheran faith/heritage/tradition. Finally, Paul spent several Sundays sharing "Jesus in the Movies" with us. We cannot thank our members Joel Fienen, Dr. Darcie Jacobs, Dr. Paul Meierding, Pastor Melanie Wallschlaeger, Pastor John Petersen, Garrett Steinberg enough. Also, we express our gratitude to Adrea Petzel for a guided tour through our web site and elexio. A special thank you to our new friend Brandon Macfarlane for sharing about his accident, near death experiences and the physical and social challenges a quadriplegic in our society faces.

We owe a considerable debt to those who came before us so that we might become more aware of the other faiths that trace their earthy roots to Abraham - including, Rabbi Barry Cytron, Dr. Sara Ruble, Dr. Steve Mellema and frequent contributor Dr. Darrell Jodock. Finally, the 6 week Lenten Leaders Dr. Jodock, Dr. Mark Tranvik and Dr. Leonard Hummel who gave new insights to what it means to be a Lutheran Pauline Christian - you were exceptional.

I will start introducing this fall's Faith Continuum leaders in the July Messenger. The Pre-Christmas schedule is almost set.

Your Faith Continuum Coordinator, Todd

Mominating Committee

The nominating committee is looking for CTK members to serve on the Church Council and Commissions. Three year terms begin in August. If you are interested in serving our church family in this way, please contact Kathy Brozik (chair) 507-420-4038 or kathybrozik@gmail.com, Pastor Melanie, or Pastor John.

Sponsor a child for VBS: $40 will provide a child the opportunity to "Uncover the Truth" at this summer's vacation bible school. The fee helps to cover the supplies, snacks and curriculum. If you would like to contribute, please bring it to the church office or contact kirstene@ctkmankato.org

Where Two Or Three Are Gathered

Last month we considered the importance of spending time alone in prayer, as Jesus instructed and modeled. But equally important is praying together with other believers. Jesus said, "Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." [Matthew 18:19-20 NRSV]. There are many lessons we can learn from these verses.

First, praying together multiplies power. Our God is a multiplier! He can multiply "loaves and fishes" and he promises to multiply answers to prayer when we pray together with one accord. Praying together builds unity. We need each other. We are stronger when we stand together and encourage one another. We become a "chord of three strands" that cannot be easily broken. [Ecclesiastes 4:12]. Second, praying together invites the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit. In God's presence, we lack nothing. Through our prayers of faith, God comes to us with forgiveness, healing, hope, and life abundant. God's presence overwhelms us with love and lets us see our earthly problems from heaven's perspective. Third, praying together increases our faith. We all struggle with doubts from time to time. When that happens, someone else can pray with us in faith and encourage our weak faith to revive. We can do the same for others. Together, as we see prayers answered, we dare to believe for miracles.

As Lutherans, we are comfortable when our pastors pray formal prayers during worship services, but we are not so comfortable praying informal "out loud" prayers with other believers, even though Jesus encouraged it and the early Christians constantly gathered together for such prayer. [See e.g., Acts 1:14, Acts 2:42, and Acts 12:12]. During this month, I encourage you to claim Jesus' promises in Matthew 18:18-19 by praying out loud with another believer—maybe your spouse, or a friend, or another family member. Pray specifically about one thing that you know to be in accordance with God's will, and remind God that he has promised to answer and to be present with you. Pray expectantly, then see what happens. You may have found yourself a new prayer partner!

> May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 15:5-6

Lunch - for - a - buck Thanks

It is with joy and thanksgiving that Crossroads Campus Ministry offers its gratitude to Christ the King Lutheran Church and the volunteers who prepared, delivered, and served delicious hot meals to hungry college students through our Lunch For-a-Buck program during the 2022-2023 school year. We extend a special thank you to faithful servants, Cindy Kehoe, Jim Hatleli, Dean Brudwick, Leslie Starr, Armin Schull, and Jerry Bodelson for taking time out of their busy schedules to ensure that no student left Crossroads hungry. Your congregation was responsible for serving Lunch For-a-Buck on seven Tuesdays throughout the year. Your volunteers fed 250 individuals and collected $233.90 in donations that went right back into purchasing the salads, beverages and table supplies for subsequent lunches.

Crossroads Campus Ministry was privileged to host 30 lunches throughout the school year, and due to the generosity of Christ the King Lutheran Church and other area congregations, a total of 1,050 people were fed and $1,059.74 in donations was collected to ensure that we can keep feeding students into the future. We look forward to continuing Lunch For-a-Buck when Fall Term begins in August and hope that Christ the King will partner with us again to feed Minnesota State – Mankato students. God bless you for your faithfulness and support of this important and impactful ministry. We couldn't do it without you!

Library Corner

The month of JUNE brings calendar and schedule changes for all of us. It is the time when school ends for the summer with special graduations for many and perhaps special family celebrations. There is time to enjoy more outdoor activities like fishing, boating, golfing, ball games, picnics, travel, vacation time and perhaps a few projects. Hopefully you will also find more time to relax and enjoy reading some good books!
