Fan or Follower

Are you a fan or a follower? Probably both.

In the world of sports, we are well acquainted with fans. Nothing wrong with being a fan but let's be honest...fans are as fickle as the weather. Fickle means to change, especially due to notion or fad. In one moment, you can be so happy but in the next, so sad.

Many people were fans of Jesus. They admired Him. The crowds loved his miracles, His message, and the Hope He offered. But when the demands of discipleship became too costly, they walked away.

In Matthew 4:19 we read, "Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me,..."

In this series, we will examine the difference between being a casual fan and a fully-committed follower of Jesus. We will explore what it takes to move from being a spectator in the stands to getting in the game. This isn't a series for the half-hearted. It's a challenging look at the call to go "all in" with Christ.

Join us for this new series starting in October!
