EASM Lifeguard Notes

May 20th & 23rd 2018

Hey Leaders! It is that awkward time of year where our minds are beginning to drift towards summer, while there still remains work to be done. Summer isn't here yet! I believe there are still great things that God wants to do through EASM before summer hits. So as Paul urges his readers in Ephesians 5:16 let us "Make the most of every opportunity...". We love you and are grateful for this team God has assembled this year. May we finish strong!

Reminders & Announcements:

1. Mary White will be teaching a Sunday morning bible study during the 10:30a.m. hour. This study will be continuing on the Old Testament overview study but it is open to both Middle School and High School students. Please make sure your students are aware of this study and encourage them to attend. Mary is a fantastic teacher and is helping to lay a biblical understanding for our students.
