Entry Into Worship

Carol Wallace

One: Come to the water to the place where creation began and where God's Spirit still hovers with care.

Many: We come remembering that we are held by love.

One: Come with the stories your body carries of blessings and belonging,
of doubt and distance,
of faith found early or discovered along the way.

Many: We come remembering that God has called us by name.

One: Come, you who have been bruised and not broken, you whose flame has flickered under the weight of the world.

Many: We come trusting that God will not quench what still burns within us.

One: Come, you who long for justice that heals rather than harms, justice that lifts rather than crushes,
justice that flows like living water.

Many: We come ready to be shaped again by God's Spirit.

One: Come, beloved of God claimed before you could earn it, named before you could speak it,
sent before you fully understood it.

Many: We come to worship, remembering who we are and whose we are.

Scripture: Isaiah 42: 1-9

Carol Wallace

Gospel: Matthew 3: 13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now, for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw God’s Spirit descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from the heavens said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Music: The Compassion HymnSermon: Marked by Water, Moved by Justice

Rev. Timoth Sylvia

Music: Water, River, Spirit, GraceAffirmation (Unison)

Rachel Robicheau

We affirm that we are claimed by love before we are capable of earning anything.
We affirm that the Spirit of God rests upon ordinary people called to extraordinary compassion.

We affirm that justice does not need to shout to be powerful and love does not need violence to be strong.

We affirm that in the waters of baptism we were named beloved... and nothing can undo that truth.

We live from that promise.

We move toward that justice.

We trust that God is still doing new things.

Amen.

Pastoral Prayer (with the Lord’s Prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom, come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Closing Music: Made NewSending Forth
