Entry Into Worship

One: Jesus shared tables with people others rejected.

Many: Jesus moved toward those others pushed away.

One: Religious leaders drew lines around who belonged.

Many: Jesus kept crossing them.

One: The world labeled some bodies unclean.

Many: Jesus called them worthy of touch and care.

One: Some were told they were too broken, too different, too sinful.

Many: Still, Jesus saw belovedness.

One: So we gather today remembering:

Many: We were made with intention.

We are seen with compassion.

We are loved without condition.

Because God doesn't make mistakes.

Scripture: Psalm 50: 7-15

Cassie Ramos

Gospel: Matthew 9: 9-13; 18-26

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax-collection station, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with Jesus and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Affirmation (Unison)

Rachel Robicheau

We believe in God,
who created every body with dignity
and called creation good.

We believe in Jesus,
who crossed boundaries,
healed the excluded,
and challenged systems
that withheld belonging from others.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
who continues to breathe healing,
courage, and liberation into wounded lives.

We reject the lie
that some bodies are more sacred than others.

We reject shame disguised as righteousness.

We reject any theology that denies people their full humanity.

Instead, we proclaim:

We were made with intention.
We are seen with compassion.
We are loved without condition.

Because God doesn't make mistakes.

Pastoral Prayer (with the Lord's Prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom, come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
