SAMSON SOCIETY

The mission of Samson House is to provide a safe place, physical or virtual, for Christian men to bring their real selves and say the real truth about the things they've kept hidden. It's a space of grace on the addiction battlefield, where men can be transparent without judgment or shame. It's a storehouse of resources, an oasis of acceptance, and a network of no bull brotherhood. We recognize we're in a battle for sexual sanity, authentic relationships, and an end to destructive hidden habits, and we refuse to let the casualties of this battle be our marriages, our children and our grandchildren.

Top Buttons, Inc. is a faith-based nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization building self-worth through mentorship, education and fashion in young women. Our teaching is centered on understanding your identity in Christ and our resources filter out the unnecessary sexually-related material that is commonly associated with the fashion industry and showcase contextually modest versions of current fashion trends.
