SECTION ONE: MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership

Men and Women who desire membership shall meet with a pastor and an elder or with two or more elders to hear the vision and direction of the Church of Hope. Upon hearing the vision and direction of the Church of Hope, they may decide if they would like to join the team and become an active member.

B. Membership Acceptance

Someone who wants to become part of the team of Church of Hope must sign the membership covenant, profess personal faith in Jesus Christ, and display evidence of spiritual growth. They shall be interviewed as per Section 1A and then received into membership which becomes effective immediately. If a person is not accepted into membership an elder or pastor shall meet with the person and explain the reason for the denial of membership.

C. Age Limitation

Members shall be at least 18 years of age.

D. Membership Records

The membership records shall be administered as follows:

1. Active Members

Active members consist of those members who adhere to the qualifications of membership as stated in the bylaws.

2. Discipline of Members

Great care and love will be exercised in disciplining the members of the Church of Hope. We will refer to Matthew 18:21-35 and take the appropriate steps with the goal of biblical reconciliation.

3. Loss of Membership

Those who have moved from the community but have not transferred their membership to another church shall have their membership suspended after a period of one year.

4. Membership List

a. The official membership list shall consist of all active members.

b. Pastoral staff and elders will review the membership list each year to keep it up to date.

SECTION TWO: GOVERNMENT

A. Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting shall be held at a time set by the elder board, with proper notice given.

B. Special Congregational Meeting

The elder board shall have authority to call special congregational meetings for purposes of information, general discussion or the conducting of church business on which a vote may be taken with proper notice having been given to the congregation.

C. Proper Notice

Proper notice shall be given to the congregation for any congregational meeting (annual meeting or special meeting) when the purpose and time of such meeting shall have been announced in two public services of the congregation immediately prior to the announced meeting. In matters on which a congregational vote must be taken, proper notice shall also include a notification via the church bulletin.

D. Member Quorum

A quorum shall consist of one-third of active members eligible to vote.

SECTION THREE: THE ELDER BOARD

A. Elder Board Members

The elder board shall consist of the pastors and church elders.

B. Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs on the elder board, the pastor(s) and present elders will select a new candidate, with great prayerful consideration, who qualifies as an elder or according to biblical standards. (1 Timothy 3:1-7)

If a vacancy occurs at the pastoral level the elders and remaining pastor(s) will select a new candidate, after prayerful consideration.

C. Term of Office

To be an elder is a calling therefore all elders will be appointed by the pastor(s) and present elders and will serve unless they move away or live in a manner not fitting of an elder (Titus 1:5-9). An elder may serve for two consecutive terms (four years) but must then resign from his position for a period of one year and is not eligible to serve on either the elder or governing boards during that year. After a one-year absence, he may then again be eligible to serve in leadership if the need exists.

D. Appointments

The Elder board shall appoint qualified persons for all positions in the church.

E. Elder Quorum

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the elder board.

SECTION FOUR: COMMITTEES

A. Job Descriptions

The elder board shall maintain an approved job description and mission for all committees, organizations and positions of ministry in the church.

B. Vacancies

Vacancies in non-elder board positions will be filled by elder board appointment.

C. Finance Team

The finance team shall consist of the church treasurer, the assistant treasurer, and two members of the congregation. The finance team will be responsible for preparing the annual budget and presenting it to the congregation for review by the first Sunday in March. They will then submit it to the elder board for approval by the third Sunday in March. The budget shall include an annual review of the salaries of the pastor(s) and staff.

D. Audit Committee

The elder board shall appoint an auditing committee once per year to audit the financial records of the church and all church organizations before the annual meeting and present its findings to the elder board and to the congregation at the annual meeting.

SECTION FIVE: BYLAWS

The principles laid out in the Bible found in (1 Timothy 1:3-11; 2 Timothy 2:14-26; Titus 1:5-16 and John 13:34-35) and other similar passages shall be the governing rule of the Church of Hope.

Real property may be purchased, sold, conveyed, exchanged, mortgaged or encumbered only by order of the membership through the elder board. In states where trustees are required, the elders serve as trustees and the order of the membership shall proceed through them.

Section 2. Records

The official records of all officers of the church and all its departments are the property of the church. In the event of the death or resignation of the incumbent or upon appointment of his successor, the current records of the office shall be passed on to the newly appointed officer. All records other than current shall be kept in a secure repository selected by the elder board.

Section 3. Audit

All financial records shall be examined annually or at more frequent intervals on order of the elder board. At least three persons, none of whom is a financial officer or a church staff member, shall be appointed by the elder board to conduct the examination. The elder board shall authorize actions to conform to additional audit standards that may be required by the jurisdiction in which the church is located.

AFFIRMATIONS OF FAITH

The Word of God

We believe that the Bible is the Word of God, fully inspired and without error in the original manuscripts. Written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and that it has supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.

The Trinity

We believe that there is one living and true God; eternally existing in three persons; that these are equal in every divine perfection; and that they execute distinct but harmonious office in the work of creation, providence and redemption.

God the Father

We believe in God the Father an infinite personal spirit perfect in holiness, wisdom, power and love. We believe that He concerns Himself mercifully in the affairs of mankind, that He hears and answers prayer and that He saves from sin and death all that come to Him through Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ

We believe in Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son, conceived by the Holy Spirit. We believe in His virgin birth, sinless life, miracles and teachings. We believe in His substitutionary atoning death, bodily resurrection, ascension into heaven, perpetual intercession for His people and personal, visible return to earth.

The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit who came forth from the Father and Son to convict the world of sin, righteousness and judgment, and to regenerate, sanctify, give gifts and empower all who believe in Jesus Christ. We believe that the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ and that He is an abiding helper, teacher and guide.

Regeneration

We believe that all people are sinners by nature and by choice and are therefore under condemnation. We believe that those who repent of their sins and trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are regenerated by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Church

We believe in the universal church, a living spiritual body of which Christ is the head and all regenerated persons are members. We believe in the local church consisting of a company of believers in Jesus Christ baptized on a credible profession of faith and associated for worship, work and fellowship. We believe that God had laid upon the members of the local church the primary task of giving the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a lost world.

Godly Sexuality

We believe God's plan for human sexuality is to be expressed only within the context of marriage and that God created man and woman as unique biological persons made to complete each other. God instituted monogamous marriage between male and female as the foundation of the family and basic structure of human society. For this reason, we believe that marriage is exclusively the union of one genetic male and one genetic female.

Furthermore our facility(s) and staff will not host/conduct any gay (homosexual) marriage.

Sanctity of Life

We believe that human life is sacred from conception to its natural end and that we must have concern for the physical and spiritual needs of our fellowman.

Christian Conduct

We believe that Christians should live for the glory of God and the wellbeing of their fellow men and women. That their conduct should be as faithful stewards of their possessions and that they should seek to realize for themselves and others the full status of maturity in Christ.

The Ordinances

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ has committed two ordinances to the local church; baptism and the Lord's Supper. We believe that Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ for the commemoration of His death. We believe that these two ordinances should be observed and administered until the return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Religious Liberty

We believe that every human being has direct relations with God and is responsible to God alone in all matters of faith.

The Last Things

We believe in the personal and visible return of the Lord Jesus Christ to earth and the establishment of His kingdom. We believe in the resurrection of the body, the final judgment, the eternal felicity of the righteous and the endless suffering of the wicked.

COVENANT

Having been led, by the Holy Spirit of God, to receive Jesus Christ as Savior and to confess Him as Lord, and on confession of this faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully covenant with one another as one body in Christ to lead a life worthy of the Lord fully pleasing to Him.

We promise, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to forsake the ways of sin and to walk together in Christian love and in the paths of righteousness. With this in view, we engage to strive together for both the peace and purity of this Church; to sustain its worship and steadfastly to cherish and hold its ordinances, and money, in the measure that God prospers each of us, that the responsibility for the work of the local church and worldwide ministry of spreading the Gospel be faithfully and effectively discharged.

We also engage to maintain family and private devotion, to teach the Bible to our children, to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances, to be just in our dealings and faithful in our engagements, to be exemplary in our deportment, to avoid unkind words and unrighteous anger, to combine zeal and knowledge in our efforts to advance the cause of our Savior, to make Christ first in all things both spiritual and temporal.

We further engage to give and receive admonition with meekness and affection, to remember each other in prayer, and to aid each other in case of sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech, to be slow to take offence but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the Scriptures to seek it without delay, to encourage one another in the blessed hope of our Lord's return.
