SENATOBIA CHURCH OF CHRIST

Ephesians 4:22-24 "You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness."

How difficult it is to sacrifice ourselves for the sake of Christ!

To trade hearts hardened by our jaded journeys for the heart softened by obedience to His heavenly Father.

To resign the expression of sensuality to the 'where & when' that God determines, and not by our passionate whims.

We are reminded by Christ not to 'let the old man in', but to be made new, recreated to be more like Him than more of us.

To make no excuses for lies. In our anger, to make no room for sin's control.

'Five-finger-discounts' rebuffed. To 'garbage in/garbage out' word choices, we will apply the filter of 'only what helps others'.

Choosing compassion over a 'tongue-lashing'. Forgiveness instead of spiritual forgeries.

Yes, Christ calls us to do difficult things by His power that is at work within us.

The One who chose 'doing good' over 'looking good' is still the One who chooses us to be agents of grace in a world of 'whatever'.

So today, trust Him by handing over what isn't of Him.

You can't do it alone - that's why God empowers the weak in Him with His brand of strength.

"The terrible thing, the almost impossible thing, is to hand over your whole self — all your wishes and precautions — to Christ." -
