"Mystery"

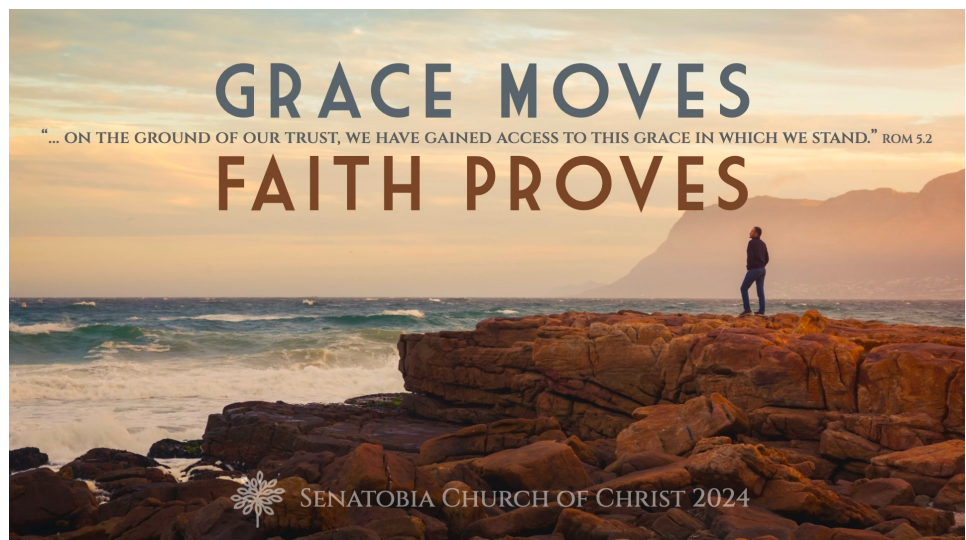

On a certain day long ago, when 'my kids were back in grade school', my son could only find one of his shoes. You see, he left one shoe outside when he was playing the day before and had no idea where it actually was. So there I was, a dad in his own back yard at 7am looking for a lost shoe in the dark using my cellphone as the only source of light.

Anyone just waking up that morning in our neighborhood might have thought I was a prowler at worst or terribly disoriented at best. All I knew is that we had 10 minutes to finish getting the kids ready before they would be late for school... and so I searched! My son said the shoe was on the top of the play set (it wasn't there). I remembered seeing it yesterday next to the sandbox (not there either - that's two strikes!) All I knew is that I was committed - I couldn't give up. Oh, there were other shoes he could have worn, but now this search was personal, a crusade of principle. I just had to find it!

Then I remembered the kids were also playing over on the alligator see-saw... so I looked and looked, then I lifted up the green plastic critter - and there it was... a bit damp (but then, so was I by that time), but just fine overall - and now the 'lost' was 'found'! You know what... it was a good feeling to finally discover the whereabouts of that one shoe. The mystery was solved and our family could function again - feet clad & dad glad!

Today I will be speaking about a 'mystery solved'... one that took a couple thousand years to reconcile. It's a 'cold case' that God solved for us - because many of us are still struggling with its resolution still today. The solution to this mystery came by God's grace and revealed by Paul... "In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets." (Ephesians 3:4-5)

I guarantee this morning 'the other shoe will drop' and we will find our own solution to this mystery together!
