"I can do all things through Him who strengthens me." Philippians 4:13

It happened.

You failed and everybody saw it.

You put yourself out there and fell flat.

Now what?

Can you accept this word today... that God strengthens the weak?

If so, this word is for you.

It always has been there, waiting, calling you to the more of God.

And it's a good, good word from our good, good Father!

God is developing you with each small victory and each biggie-size defeat.

Don't quit now - just trust Him more than you trusted yourself and realize God's not done with you.

Did you hear that... God's work isn't finished through you and in you yet.

He is still offering grace to those who need it. And that's all of us.

He is still growing faith in the lives of those who trust Him.

You can believe it because you can believe Him.

So know this, in our weakness, His strength is enough.

'Enough' because the one who supplies that strength can and will do 'all things' in us!

That's a promise!

"Just because you are rejected once doesn't mean you can't try again.

We grow the most in those moments of great vulnerability. Failure and risk, those are your friends. It's in that season that the Lord uses it to really help you develop to become the leader you're going to be." -

Dr. Michael Lindsay
