The understanding of baptism as a singular event and gracious gift of God is balanced with an understanding of baptism as an ongoing way of life. Washing with water in the name of the triune God before the Christian assembly is at the center of one’s whole life as a Christian, no matter when in life baptism occurs. The baptismal event is surrounded by a journey that includes nurture, formation, initiation, return, affirmation, remembrance, and ultimately the completion of God’s promise in the life to come. (Holy Baptism and Related Rites p.vii)

I believe that in Baptism God forgives sin, delivers from death and the devil, and gives everlasting salvation to all who believe what he has promised.

I desire to be instructed in the Christian faith leading to Baptism.
