Petition 2 – Jesus prays for His return to glory and conclusion of mission

The Facts:

- Jesus glorified the Father on earth, the specific place of incarnational mission
- The work Jesus accomplished was the will and work of the Father
- Jesus has finished the work – there is nothing more to do

The Petition:

- Jesus asks the Father to respond by glorifying the Son as the Son has glorified Him
- Jesus accomplished the work of the Father through His continual self-emptying
- The glory Jesus asks for is eternal, in contrast to earthly fading and temporal glory

The Implications:

- Jesus has made God's full and true character clearly known
- Jesus makes this known only to those whom God has chosen and given to the Son
- Jesus' followers will be empowered to keep His word
- The disciples are prepared with completed directions from the proper source
- The disciples will be sent out to continue the ministry and message faithfully and fully given by Jesus

Observations for Application:

Observation 1: As God's people seek the glory of God in and through all things

Observation 2: Believe and obey the Lord

Observation 3: Know and receive God's word
