Discussion Questions

- 1) Pastor Doug noted that we're all searching for something...something to fulfill the longing in our hearts. What have you tried to use to satisfy that longing in your own life?
- 2) As it turns out, the only thing we're truly longing for is an experience of God and His grace in our lives. Share about when you realized this and truly experienced God. What was it like?
- 3) Pastor Doug talked about the clash between King Herod and King Jesus. He said that there are things (i.e. "kings) in our own lives that demand our attention and our affections and draw us away from the true King: Jesus. What are some of those other "kings" in your own life?
- 4) The only true King, Jesus, offers immeasurable amounts of grace to us. But then he invites us to share that grace and love with those around us. What are one or two specific ways you can activate grace towards others in your life this week?
