Genesis 1
“Good Work”

Q: “What is the Chief end of Man?”

A: To glorify God and enjoy him forever.

+Westminster Shorter Catechism 1643

Work (Not employment) activity involving mental or physical effort done in order to achieve a purpose or result.

Enjoying God—Work is Good

+The Bible depicts God at work and that is a good thing. God delights in His work.

+Other Origin accounts (Enuma Elish) depict creation as a haphazard or accidental incident.

+God is at work (still creating) in this world and our work is worshipful response of joining in with Him.

Glorifying God—Work has a purpose

Cultural Mandate (Genesis 1:28) The development and potential of creation.

*How are the tasks, work, chores, hobbies you undertake helping to bring about the potential development of God's creation?

“I know God's Grace can come down to a man's hand and the flash of a scabby fish knife.” +Calvin Seerveld

In Genesis we see God as gardener.

In Jesus we see God as a carpenter, who also does a little fishing on the side.
