Message Notes

10 Commandments—You Shall Not Murder

Scope—Has to do with human well-being in this life.

Positive Force—Promote everyone's well-being, including your own, as you are able.

Negative Force—Don't harm, but it's okay to hurt (sometimes).

“You shall not kill,” vs. “You shall not murder”

Zeroing in with Sermon on the Mount

Beyond avoiding hate to active love

Our Church Family

Cindy V was moved to the Shirley Ryan Ability Lab for acute therapy. Megan writes that "Mom is trying more words and sometimes even sentences (not frustration-free, but oh so good to hear)." The family is thankful for family, friends, and all who continue to surround Tom & Cindy and the family with your care and support.

Brad H is off all sedation, the ventilator, his feeding tube, and is tube and wire free! The surgeon feels he got 95% of the tumor! From Lindsey: "Please keep praying! God has been so good. We pray Brad continues to keep progressing so positively. Pray for pain relief, continued healing, and peace. Thank you for the continued love, prayers, and support!"

Javed B, Neal & Nancy M's son-in-law, has an aggressive, cancerous tumor between his stomach, liver and pancreas. Treatment will include chemo and surgery over 12-months. A gofundme page has been set up for updates on his condition and financial support as they anticipate significant expenses for his difficult road ahead. <https://www.gofundme.com/f/javed-bachew-cancer-treatment-and-recovery>
