Call to Worship

Elder Tim Fay

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.
Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.

We know from experience that the Yahweh is God. They made us, and we are theirs; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Prayer of Invocation

Elder Tim Fay

God of Abraham and Sarah, Rebekah and Isaac, Jacob and Rachel; your faithfulness endures through generations. Your love is salvation and our lives are worship. You mold our lives to righteousness and justice, and we put our trust in you. Thank you for peace, joy, and rest in this rhythm of grace. Be our guide, O God, that we may see and serve you for generations to come.

Amen.

Will you welcome children among us and make room for them in our worship and in our hearts? We will, with God’s help.

Will you celebrate their questions, nurture their faith, and remember that children are not only the future of the church, but part of the church today? We will, with the Spirit’s inspiration.

Will you remember that the sounds of children are not interruptions to the work of the church, but signs of a living congregation? We will, with Christ’s love

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture

Romans 5:1-8 (The Message)

By entering through faith into what God has always wanted to do for us—set us right with him, make us fit for him—we have it all together with God because of our Master Jesus. And that’s not all: We throw open our doors to God and discover at the same moment that he has already thrown open his door to us. We find ourselves standing where we always hoped we might stand—out in the wide-open spaces of God’s grace and glory, standing tall and shouting our praise.

There’s more to come: We continue to shout our praise even when we’re hemmed in with troubles, because we know how troubles can develop passionate patience in us, and how that patience in turn forges the tempered steel of virtue, keeping us alert for whatever God will do next. In alert expectancy such as this, we’re never left feeling shortchanged. Quite the contrary—we can’t round up enough containers to hold everything God generously pours into our lives through the Holy Spirit!

Christ arrives right on time to make this happen. He didn’t, and doesn’t, wait for us to get ready. He presented himself for this sacrificial death when we were far too weak and rebellious to do anything to get ourselves ready. And even if we hadn’t been so weak, we wouldn’t have known what to do anyway. We can understand someone dying for a person worth dying for, and we can understand how someone good and noble could inspire us to selfless sacrifice. But God put his love on the line for us by offering his Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to him.
