

God's Story

TJ Lawson
Food for Thought and Outline

Week of March 10, 2018

1. In two or three sentences, how would you paraphrase Sunday's message? How will you seek to apply the truths of Sunday's message to your life this week?

2. How is Jesus calling you to live today motivated by the truth of who He is and what He has done for you? Whom does Jesus want you to love or serve this week?

3. Read Exodus 6:14-30 and Matthew 1:1-17. Why do you think the authors of these two passages chose to include names and genealogy? From these lists, are there any names that stand out from other parts of the Bible?

What is a legacy? What does it mean to have a legacy of faith? How will you pursue leaving a legacy of faith?

4. Read Ephesians 2:1-10. What is your story of coming to faith in Christ? What has Christ freed you from and how did He give you new life? This week, write out your testimony and share it on www.1millionstories.org.

What does it mean that we have always been a part of God's big story? How can that encourage the believer for the works that they have been called to?

5. How will you spend your time this week for Jesus' purposes? How will you steward time, talents, and resources this week for the Kingdom? Who will you share the gospel with this week?

Memory Verse

Exodus 6:26- "These are the Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said: 'Bring out the people of Israel from the land of Egypt by their hosts.'"
