

BECOMING

2 CORINTHIANS 3:18

MAKE DISCIPLES.

When you see a good movie, hear a new favorite song, or have something really good happen to you, what is your reaction? Most people want to TELL someone!

Water coolers, dinner tables, and Facebook feeds are riddled with our latest movie reviews and life updates. We insist on being the car DJ so that everyone can hear our newest musical obsession. We want to share the good things in our lives.

Yet when it comes to the most life-changing, astounding part of life, we stay silent. Why is this?

Jesus calls us to become disciple-makers. This doesn't mean we shove our opinions down everyone's throat but it also doesn't mean we sit idly by and passively hope for the best.

How can you be a bold but loving disciple-maker?

IN THE BIBLE.

John 13:34-35

So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.

Matthew 4:18-20

One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” And they left their nets at once and followed him.

Matthew 28:18-20

Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”
