

I have had so many “God-incidents.” I love how often He seems to show up in my life. What follows are two such moments:

Last week, a lady texted and asked how she could become a Christian. I shared with her, “You humbly repent of your sins and ask Jesus to forgive you and to come live in your heart. He will forgive, and His Holy Spirit will come to live within.” I invited her to read the following scriptures, in the order presented:

Romans 3:23

Romans 6:23

Romans 5:8-9

Romans 10:9-10

Ephesians 1:13-14

Romans 8:8-11

The second God-incident happened a couple of years ago. I met a young man in Chicago, whom I asked about a bus headed to Findlay. He was going on the same bus to Findlay University. There were many ways God intervened on our trip, and before reaching our destination, he had shared his troubled situation, and I shared a sandwich and Jesus. Later, he traveled to our home to ask questions on how to further his walk with Jesus.

You never know when God will intervene. It is an exciting time to walk with Jesus!

--Ann Stewart